FRONDUE

We started with a blank porcelain panel and then developed a selection of artistic renderings that comprise the Bespoke collection. These are all produced on 5mm porcelain ceramic panels @ 39" wide x 118" long. The lush foliage on these white porcelain ceramic panels suggests an early morning tropical locale where the mists are receding in readiness for another hot and sultry day, the fogginess adds to the mystery as it beckons you into the environment and forces you to investigate further.
